DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., rigid insert) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). The applicant also argues that Fecteau does not describe a face-piece insert, but the examiner disagrees. Fecteau does disclose a face-piece insert 22 (see figure 2). Therefore, claims 1-4, 13, 14, 16-19, and 21-23 are still rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gleason et al. in view of Fecteau as stated in the previous office action dating July 25th, 2005 and claim 8 is still rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gleason et al. in view of Freund as stated in the previous office action dating July 25th, 2005. In reference to claims 5-7, 9-12, 15 and 20, close reading of the applicant's specification reveals that these components have always been close tolerance or critical elements therefore applicant's designation of critical elements does not carry any patentable weight as stated in the previous office action dating July 25th, 2005.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
